The Chancellor, The Federal German Republic

We the following wish to express our deep dismay at the earlier action of the government of Germany in sending Davinderpal Singh Bhuller to India where he is now facing a death sentence based on unsound evidence. We are shocked at the majority judgement of the Indian Supreme Court which reached its conclusions arguing that 'proof beyond reasonable doubt is a fetish' and that 'procedure to ensure authenticity of evidence is unnecessary'. We urge you to take all steps to ensure that Mr Bhuller can be saved from becoming a victim of gross injustice. His life should be the conscious of Germany now.
